

Ronald Lissak Biography

Ronald Lissak is the Executive Vice President of Sales at Indaba Health and Wellness, LLC. Mr. Lissak brings a wealth of knowledge about the health care industry and exceptional entrepreneurship skills to the IHW team.

Throughout his career, he has been dedicated to patient care and committed to research and excellence in clinical operations. Although he is a CPA by training, Mr. Lissak has over 25 years of experience in the health care field.

For the past 16 years, he has been at the forefront of Molecular Imaging by owning and operating fixed and mobile PET and PET/CT sites across the northeast United States. His work in the PET industry began in 1998 when he founded Integral PET Associates and, in conjunction with Montefiore Medical Center, installed one of the first PET centers in the New York Metropolitan area.

Over the next 14 years, Mr. Lissak worked closely with the Department of Nuclear Medicine to build one of the preeminent PET/CT centers in the country. Integral PET Associates grew to include 15 cardiac imaging centers and over 25 PET and PET/CT sites. During this time, these sites were amongst the primary Beta sites for the development of the Philips line of PET and PET/CT. In 2011, Mr. Lissak sold the company in order to focus on health care consulting.

He gained invaluable understanding of the Nuclear Medicine industry by developing one of the strongest physician education programs in the country. In addition, he is on the board of The Albert Einstein College of Medicine and the treasurer of the Carlos Otis Clinic in Stratton, Vermont.

Mr. Lissak holds a BS in Accounting from Syracuse University and received an Entrepreneurship degree from the Harvard Business School.
